

INSTRUCTIONS -- COMPLETING THE ACM COPYRIGHT TRANSFER AND RELEASE FOR ARTISTIC IMAGES, A/V RECORDING AND DISTRIBUTION

Thank you for submitting a paper for publication by ACM. ACM's publications are read throughout the world in print and digital formats. ACM must manage requests for reprinting, republishing, redistributing, digitizing, posting to servers, translating, anthologizing, and other actions. It is the policy of ACM to own the copyright on its technical publications to protect the interests of ACM, its authors and their employers, and at the same time to facilitate the appropriate reuse of this material by others. United States Copyright Law requires that the transfer of copyright of each contribution from the author to ACM be confirmed. (See ACM Copyright Policy §2.1).

How to Complete the ACM Copyright Form:

- Part I: Authors must sign and date Part I for the copyright transfer to be valid. Select Box A (and/or B if applicable for Government interest).
- Part II: Authors must select Box A to allow for A/V recording; select Box B if any auxiliary materials are included.
- Part III: Third-party Materials -- To be completed if the paper contains materials not owned by the authors.
- Part IV: Artistic Images – List those artistic images owned by the author(s) or their employers for which only permission to use is being granted.
- Part V: Liability/Indemnification Waiver -- Authors must sign Part V.

Please return the Form minus the Instruction page, with the manuscript to the editor at the address on the Form. The Form must be received by ACM before processing the manuscript for publication. Additional details about each Part of the Form are provided below. Note: ACM authors retain all proprietary rights other than copyright and a set of "Retained Rights" stated on the Form. (Also see the ACM Copyright Policy, §2.4, §2.5 and the Permissions Policy, §3 for further details.)

Part I – Must be signed and dated to validate the copyright transfer.

I.A. – Assent to Assignment

If you are employed and prepared your paper as part of your job, or as a "work-made-for-hire," the rights to your paper may initially rest with your employer. If so, the Form should be signed by an authorized person. If you sign the Form, ACM assumes that you have been authorized to do so by the copyright owner.

For jointly authored papers, an original signature is required from only one author acting as the authorized agent of the others. However, we recommend that all authors read and agree to the terms of the Form.

I.B. – Declaration of Government Employment (Does not apply to State Government-funded employee/authors)

Check only Box B of Part I of the Form if all authors are national Government employees, and the work was created as part of their jobs exclusively for a Government agency. A statement of "public domain" will appear on the work submitted (the "Work") if it is not copyrightable. If any co-authors are not government employees, Box A of Part I must also be checked, and a modified copyright statement regarding government use will appear in the publication.

In the case of authors employed by a civilian agency working under a National Government contract, i.e., a national laboratory or other federally-funded research institution, you must check both Box A and Box B of Part I and identify the agency and country. This does not apply to state-funded employees. ACM recognizes the Government has royalty-free permission to reproduce all or portions of the Work, and to authorize others to do so for official Government purposes only, if the contract so requires.

Part II – Permissions: Sign as appropriate.

ACM requires a signed release (rather than a transfer of copyright) to make and distribute audio/video recordings of speaker presentations. Please select Box A to allow recording. ACM also requires a signed release to serve auxiliary materials, i.e. additional files, including software and executables that are not submitted for review as an integral part of the work but are supplied by the author as useful and interesting resources for the reader (collectively, the "Auxiliary Materials"). Please also select Box B in Part II if you are supplying Auxiliary Materials.

Part III – Third Party Material (See instructions at <http://www.acm.org/publications/third-party-material>)

If you have incorporated any material owned by a third party in your Work or into your Auxiliary Material, you must fill out Part III of the Form and attach proof of permission to include this material to include this material in publication.

Part IV – Artistic Images of Independent Value

If your paper includes images that were created for any purpose other than this paper and to which you or your employer wish to retain copyright, you must complete Part IV and be sure to include a notice of copyright with each such image in the paper.

Part V – Liability and Indemnification Waiver: Everyone must sign Part V.

ACM COPYRIGHT FORM AND VIDEO/MATERIALS RELEASE

Title of Work (the "Work"): _____

Publication and/or Conference Name: _____

Author/Presenter(s): _____

I. COPYRIGHT TRANSFER (THIS SECTION MUST BE SIGNED AND DATED; CHECK "A" OR "B" AS APPROPRIATE.)

Copyright to the Work and to any Supplemental Files integral to the Work which are submitted with it for review and publication such as an extended proof, a PowerPoint outline, or appendices that may exceed a printed page limit, (including without limitation, the right to publish the Work in whole or in part in any and all forms of media, now or hereafter known) is hereby transferred to the ACM (for Government work, to the extent transferable -see Part I. B. below) effective as of the date of this agreement, on the understanding that the Work has been accepted for publication by ACM.

Employer / Author(s) Retained Rights. Each of the Employer/Author(s) retains the following rights:

1. All other proprietary rights to the work such as patent;
2. The right to reuse any portion of the Work, without fee, in future works of the Author's (or Author's Employer's) own, including books, lectures and presentations in all media, provided that the ACM citation, notice of the Copyright and the ACM DOI are included (See Section 4 below). Requests made on behalf of others, however (i.e. contributions to the work of other authors or other editors), usually require payment of a fee;
3. The right to revise the work. (See Policy §2.4 Definitive Versions and Revisions);
4. The right to post author-prepared versions of the Work covered by the ACM copyright in a personal collection on their own home page, on a publicly accessible server of their employer and in a repository legally mandated by the agency funding the research on which the Work is based. Such posting is limited to noncommercial access and personal use by others, and must include the following notice both embedded within the full text file and in the accompanying citation display as well:

"© ACM, (YEAR). This is the author's version of the work. It is posted here by permission of ACM for your personal use. Not for redistribution. The definitive version was published in PUBLICATION, {VOL#, ISS#, (DATE)} <http://doi.acm.org/10.1145/{nnnnnnn.nnnnnn}>".

(You may find the nnnnnnn.nnnnnn number for your article DOIs on its citation page in the ACM Digital Library.)

5. The right of an employer who originally owned the copyright to distribute definitive copies of its author-employees' Work within its organization. Posting these works for access outside of the employer's organization requires explicit permission from ACM.
6. The right to post a unique link using the Author-Izer ACM Linking Service on either the author's homepage or Institutional Repository (wherever the author's bibliography is maintained) which enables free access from that location to the definitive version of the work permanently maintained in the ACM Digital Library.

Authors should understand that consistent with ACM's policy of encouraging dissemination of information, each work published by ACM appears with the ACM copyright and the following notice:

"Permission to make digital or hard copies of part or all of this work for personal or classroom use is granted without fee provided that copies are not made or distributed for profit or commercial advantage and that copies bear this notice and the full citation on the first page. Copyrights for components of this work owned by others than ACM must be honored. Abstracting with credit is permitted. To copy otherwise, to republish, to post on servers or to redistribute to lists, requires prior specific permission and/or a fee."

☐ A. Assent to Assignment - I hereby represent and warrant that I am the sole owner (or authorized agent of the copyright owner(s)), with the exception of third party material detailed in Section III below. I have obtained permission for any third-party material included in the Work.

☐ B. Declaration for Government Work - I am an employee of the National Government of my country and my Government claims rights to this work, or it is not copyrightable. (Government work is classified as Public Domain in U.S. only. Do not check Box B if you are a State employee. Do not check Box B if your research was merely funded by an agency of the Government unless required to do so as a grant recipient or direct contractor.)

If either you or a co-author is a contractor of the National Government, Check both Boxes “A” and “B.” A modified copyright statement regarding government use will appear on the published work.

Name of National Government Agency and Country: _____

If not the United States or Canada, does your country claim copyright in this work? _____ If “No”, make sure Box A is also checked.

II. PERMISSION FOR CONFERENCE TAPING AND DISTRIBUTION (Check A and, if applicable, B)

A. ☐ Audio / Video Release

I hereby grant permission for ACM to include my name, likeness, presentation and comments in any and all forms, for the Conference and/or Publication.

I further grant permission for ACM to record and/or transcribe and reproduce my presentation as part of the ACM Digital Library, and to distribute the same for sale in complete or partial form as part of an ACM product on CD-ROM, DVD, webcast, USB device, streaming video or any other media format now or hereafter known.

Accordingly, I give ACM the right to use my image, voice, pronouncements, likeness, and my name, and any biographical material submitted by me, in connection with the Conference and/or Publication, whether used in excerpts or in full, for distribution described above and for any associated advertising or exhibition.

B. ☐ Auxiliary Materials

[Defined as additional files, including software and executables that are not submitted for review and publication as an integral part of the Work but are supplied by the author as useful resources for the reader.]

I hereby grant ACM permission to serve files named above containing my Auxiliary Material from the ACM Digital Library. I hereby represent and warrant that my Auxiliary Material contains no malicious code, virus, trojan horse or other software routines or hardware components designed to permit unauthorized access or to disable, erase or otherwise harm any computer systems or software, and I hereby agree to indemnify and hold harmless ACM from all liability, losses, damages, penalties, claims, actions, costs and expenses (including reasonable legal expense) arising from the use of such files.

III. THIRD-PARTY MATERIAL

Copyright. This copyright transfer applies only to the Work as a whole, not to any embedded objects owned by third parties. An author who embeds an object, such as an art image that is copyrighted by a third party, must obtain that party’s permission to include the object, with the understanding that the entire Work may be distributed as a unit in any medium. The requirement to obtain third-party permission does not apply if the author embeds only a link to the copyright holder’s definitive version of the object. (See Policy, §3.7 Links and INSTRUCTIONS at <http://www.acm.org/publications/third-party-material>.)

Permission. In the event that any materials used in my presentation or Auxiliary Materials contain the work of third-party individuals or organizations (including copyrighted music or movie excerpts or anything not owned by me), I understand that it is my responsibility to secure any necessary permissions and/or licenses for print and/or digital publication, and cite or attach them below.¹

Third-party copyright must be clearly stated in the caption(s) or images or in the text narrative near the object(s) in the Work and in any presentation of it and in Auxiliary Materials as applicable. Identify below any third-party material included in the Work, presentation and/or the Auxiliary Materials. Please specify the type of material being used i.e., figure, table, photo, music, video or code. When the permission is obtained, attach it to this form. The Work will not be published without proof of the necessary permission attached or substantiation of a claim of fair use. (Use a separate sheet if additional space is required.)

IV. ARTISTIC IMAGES

An exception to copyright transfer is allowed for images or figures in your paper which have "independent artistic value." You or your employer may retain copyright to the artistic images or figures which you created for some purpose other than to illustrate a point in this paper and which you wish to exploit in other contexts.

If you have such exceptional images, you must grant permission to ACM to use them in the context of the article in current and future formats. You must identify them here and also in the paper by including the owner's copyright notice within the image itself and/or in its figure caption.

V. LIABILITY WAIVERS & INDEMNIFICATIONS

Because I retain certain rights in my work under the ACM Copyright Transfer Agreement and under the ACM Permissions Release Form, such as patent and moral rights, I therefore hereby agree not to assert any of my rights against ACM in connection with ACM's use of my work as agreed to herein, and I further acknowledge that ACM is under no obligation to exercise all of the rights I have granted.

I hereby agree to indemnify ACM and its agents and assigns against any and all losses incurred in connection with any claim or proceedings asserting that I have violated a prior agreement in presenting my work at an ACM event and/or in granting ACM rights to publish my work.

I hereby agree to indemnify ACM and its agents and assigns against any and all losses incurred in connection with any claim or proceeding asserting plagiarism and/or copyright infringement if the investigation carried out by ACM according to its Plagiarism Policy (see: http://www.acm.org/publications/policies/plagiarism_policy) determines that my work is the plagiarizing or infringing work. [Note, in accordance with its policies, ACM generally defends its authors against charges of plagiarism and will reasonably investigate others on behalf of the author who plagiarize a work copyrighted and published by ACM.]

All permissions and releases granted by me herein shall be effective in perpetuity and shall extend and apply to ACM and its agents and assigns.

I agree to the terms of this Section V.
